About Our Camp

The Manor Montessori School has been serving families in the Washington area for over sixty-two years. Our camp combines use of Montessori apparatus to reinforce lessons taught during the school year with the fun of arts and crafts, music, movement, virtual field trips, and outdoor activities such as water play, sports and zumba.

Toddler Program Potomac and Bethesda Only

The Toddler program is for children age 2 years. This program is available as a half day or full day only at our Potomac and St. D's/Bethesda locations. No before care or after care is available to toddlers. Your children do not need to be potty trained. The toddler program is led by experienced teachers and is specifically designed for the two-year-old child, as their first school experience.

Primary Program

The Primary program is for children ages 3-7 at Potomac and 3-6 at Rockville and Bethesda. Primary children must be potty trained. This program is available half day or full day, with before care and after care provided at our Potomac location.
